

salon series 2012

Columbia Association
COLUMBIA
ART CENTER

6100 Foreland Garth, Columbia, MD 21045
Just minutes from Route 175 and Tamar Drive
410-730-0075 Fax: 410-997-2902
Art.Staff@columbiaassociation.com
ColumbiaArtCenter.org

Sponsored by Columbia Art Center Galleries
and Little Patuxent Review!

Free Monthly Presentations

by Area Artists, Poets, Actors, Musicians and Other Specialists

Monday,
January 30 • 7pm
Pullman Coach
Presentation

Kevin J. Tankersley, who manages public trips and private charters for the classic 1930's Pullman private rail road car, Dover Harbor, will speak on the history of the Pullman.

Wednesday,
February 15 • 7pm
What Makes A Great Film?

Michael Giuliano and Marie Westhaver, professors who teach film courses at Howard Community College will discuss the genre of film. Evening discussion promises to be sheer delight for film buffs!

Monday,
March 12 • 7pm
Hunting the Oldest Stars

Tom Brown, Mission Scientist for James Webb Space Telescope, will discuss how he uses some of the deepest images ever obtained with the Hubble Space Telescope to measure the ages of the stars in our galaxy and other galaxies in the universe.

For Full Listing of Presentations, call Columbia Art Center at 410-730-0075, email
art.staff@columbiaassociation.com or visit ColumbiaArtCenter.org.

